This pamphlet is not intended for those who wish to enrol in Independent Learning Centre (ILC) courses. Enrolment information is provided in the Student Guide, which is available on request from ILC.

ILC sales

The Independent Learning Centre, Ontario Ministry of Education, provides free home-study courses for Ontario residents who wish to obtain credits towards a high school diploma, upgrade basic skills, or study for enjoyment. The popularity of these courses has resulted in a demand for ILC learning materials. As a consequence, ILC independent study courses are now available for purchase.

Courses available

Secondary and non-credit adult basic education courses are now available. For course descriptions, refer to the ILC Student Guide.

The following elementary courses are also available:

English	Grade 7	Geography	Grade 7
	Grade 8		Grade 8
French	Grade 7	Mathematics	Grade 7
History	Grade 7		Grade 8
	Grade 8

Uses

- The possible uses of these independent study courses include:
- adult drop-in programs or alternative school programs
 - remediation, enrichment, or acceleration
 - instruction for short-term absentees
 - programs for housebound or hospitalized students
 - co-operative education programs
 - instruction for students enrolled in Supervised Alternative Learning for Excused Pupils programs
 - private study for out-of-school adults
 - curriculum resource material
 - teacher retraining

Terms

The purchase of lessons does not include tutoring, evaluation, or certification by ILC.

All ILC prices are determined on a cost-recovery, non-refundable basis. Certain courses involve texts or kits that cannot be obtained from ILC. Information about the purchase of these materials is contained in the ILC Sales List.

Copyright restrictions prohibit purchasers from re-selling or reproducing ILC course materials. Some courses contain material authorized by a primary copyright holder for publication on condition that there be no unauthorized reproduction.

Additional information

Further information, current prices, and purchase order forms may be obtained by phoning, visiting, or writing to the Independent Learning Centre.
